

SELLING WITH INTENTION

PRESENTED BY
URSULA MENTJES

Ursula Mentjes is passionate about helping individuals and businesses reach their full potential. Developing her expertise while working at an international technical training company, she created a formula for success. In May of 2004, she founded Potential Quest, Inc., parent company of Sales Coach Now, a professional coaching and consulting firm that specializes in working with entrepreneurs and sales people.

What if someone told you that there was a new way to sell? An easier way? Whether you are a sales professional or an entrepreneur, this program will teach you the principles of Selling with Intention and help you significantly increase your sales with less effort and less stress – without compromising your ethics or values. Ms. Mentjes has helped businesses double and triple their sales revenue in as short as two months. Once clients are clear on where they are and where they going, they can begin to tap in to the highest potential of their organization.

Ms. Mentjes holds a Master's Degree in Psychology, is an Associate Certified Coach through the International Coaches Federation and a Neuro-Linguistic Programming Coach through the MLP Institute of California.
