

INTRODUCTION TO EXPORTING

PRESENTED BY

Jorge Silva

International Trade Consultant

Inland Empire Small Business Development Center

Jorge Silva is a top executive with over 25 years of international business development experience. He is currently the International Trade Consultant for the IE SBDC and the president of Americas Integrated, a group of International trade experts, dedicated to helping small and medium size companies expand to Latin America. As a Management Consultant for the past 8 years, he has helped dozens of local companies grow their business.

Join us and learn what opportunities and resources are available to help you expand your market by exporting your product or service. This informative seminar will introduce new businesses to the world of exporting, identifying what resources are available to guide you through the process and help you assess your readiness to begin globally marketing your product or service.
