

EMPLOYEE vs. INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR

PRESENTED BY

Mercy Moreno

Employment Tax Consultant

Employment Development Department

As an employer, you are faced with many challenges and responsibilities. It is to your advantage to know your obligations and understand the State payroll reporting requirements. Complying with the employment tax laws will help you avoid payroll tax problems. Ms. Moreno will discuss topics such as: factors that make a worker an employee, basics of statutory employment, independent contractor reporting requirements and how to get help.

Mercy Moreno began her career with the Employment Development Department in 1989. Prior to joining EDD, she worked for the Franchise Tax Board for 10 years. She currently holds a position as an Employment Tax Consultant, and conducts seminars and outreach events to the employer community on employment tax topics. Her prior experience with EDD was as a Senior Tax Compliance Representative. She worked as Specialist in collections and resolutions of chronic delinquent liabilities and also served as a trainer and as a lead for her supervisor.

Tuesday, October 25, 2011

6:00 — 9:00 p.m.

San Jacinto Community Center

625 S. Pico Avenue, San Jacinto, CA

CALIFORNIA
SBDC
Inland Empire

The program is free, but registration is required. Register with Jan Catron at jcatron@sanjacintoca.us or call (951) 537-6354.

Free Workshop