

How Do I Participate?

The San Jacinto Military Banner Program honors San Jacinto Valley residents, and their immediate family members, that are either veterans or serving on active duty in the United States Armed Forces.

To participate in the program, fill out the attached application and include a copy of the driver's license or a current utility bill showing a local San Jacinto Valley address, of the military service person or his/her immediate family member. Please include verification of active duty status, veterans status, with honorable discharge and dates.

Include a 5x7 or larger color portrait style photograph of the service person in his/her military uniform for display on the banner (all photographs will be returned once they have been scanned). Digital format photographs resolution 300 dpi or higher, will also be accepted and can be emailed to: DClayton@sanjacentoca.us

Quantity is limited to one (1) banner per service person. Cost for banner is $190 and includes installation. Please verify the spelling of the name, it will be taken directly from application form.
