Meetings set for residents in Supervisor Stone's district to discuss tax bills

Residents in the Supervisor Jeff Stone's third supervisorial district will be able meet with county officials by appointment to discuss property-tax bills at two special meetings in November.

At the request of Supervisor Stone, representatives from the county Assessor-Clerk-Recorder, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors/Assessment Appeals Division and Treasurer-Tax Collector offices also will be on hand to answer questions about tax bills, valuation of assessments, applications for assessment appeals and related topics.

Appointments are limited to 15 minutes each and must be made in advance by calling (951) 955-1030. The meetings will last from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. and be held:

Nov. 8 -- Supervisor Stone's Hemet office, 43950 E. Acacia, Suite A, Hemet in the Riverside County Sheriff's Valle Vista Station off Florida/Fairview.

Nov. 22 -- Supervisor Stone's French Valley office at the French Valley Airport, 37600 Sky Canyon Dr., Suite A, Murrieta.

For more information, contact Supervisor Stone's office at (951) 955-1030.
