

Unique Sports Restaurant Opens in the Inland Empire

The Bullpen Sports Restaurant and Bar is now open in the Hemet and San Jacinto Valley Area of the Inland Empire

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRLog (Press Release) – Aug 22, 2007 – The Bullpen Sports Restaurant opened for business today in the San Jacinto/Hemet Valley area. After two plus years in the making, the Bullpen can truly pride itself as being one of the most unique sports themed establishments in all of Southern California.

From authentic Dodger Stadium seats in the waiting area to the Green Monster wall with crowd graphics above, the Bullpen offers a baseball themed architecture and presentation that simply can not be found anywhere else.

"We've literally done all we can to make this a one-of-a-kind place" said Mark Lewis, one of the owner/operators of the Bullpen. "We even had the seats in our booths produced with the same type of leather used to make baseball gloves" he said.

Besides its rare architecture the Bullpen also features a wide variety of sports memorabilia and photos that's sure to please any sports fan. And with fifteen large flat screen televisions strategically placed throughout the restaurant, every customer will enjoy a great view of their favorite team from any seat in the building.

"It's not just our appearance that sets us apart though" said Lewis. "We've also put together a fantastic but yet affordable and family friendly menu. For example, a family can build their very own unique pizza together. Our servers actually bring the pizza dough and toppings right out to your table where each person can put whatever they want on their particular portion of the pizza. So far I think most parents seem to enjoy that as much as the kids do!"

The Bullpen offers a full menu of appetizers, salads, sandwiches, pizzas and dinners. From the one and a half pound giant hotdog, to the sizzling flat iron steak, sweet potato fries, and "balk balk balk" chicken fingers, there is truly something for everyone on the Bullpen's diverse menu.

The Bullpen also boasts a full bar including nine different cold beers on tap along with a full array of mixed drink offerings as well. The scoreboard big screen above the bar area will surely be a fan favorite during the upcoming MLB playoffs along with the NCAA College and NFL football seasons.

"As we put the finishing touches on everything over the last week, we've literally turned away hundreds of people. Everyone has been very excited," said Lewis. "I just want everyone to know that we're now open and ready to serve you here at the Bullpen!"

With such a fun and friendly atmosphere the Bullpen will surely be a grand slam for everyone in the Hemet and San Jacinto area as well as sports fans throughout the entire Inland Empire. The Bullpen is located at 2241 W Esplanade in San Jacinto CA. They are open from 11:00am to 1:00am daily and can be reached at (951) 487-0300.
